THE NEGRO IN AMERICA
A Bibliography

Second edition, revised and enlarged

Compiled by Mary L. Fisher

With a new foreword by Thomas F. Pettigrew

Originally compiled by Elizabeth W. Miller

The second edition of this definitive bibliography contains 6500 entries—almost twice as many as its widely acclaimed progenitor—and thus remains the only current work of reference that brings together so many significant citations of books, journals, pamphlets, and government documents.

A new view of the issue of black nationalism includes sections on the Muslims and the Panthers. There are new chapters on black theater, dance, and the arts, on music, and on the Negro in literature and the arts. Also offered for the first time are references to language and idiom, interracial adoption, black studies, and community control of education.

A Prophetic Chronicle of a World in Tumult: 1888-1933

ARCHIV FÜR SOZIALWISSENSCHAFT UND SOZIALPOLITIK

It was a time of radical change—a traditional world buckling under the pressure of social, political, and economic upheaval. Revolutions in science and technology were demolishing the old formalistic order.

With extraordinary scholarship, Archiv für Sozialwissenschaft und Sozialpolitik brings these events into sharp historical perspective. With brilliant theoretical and methodological innovation, Archiv establishes itself as a paradigm for later studies of law, politics, religion, economics and sociology.

Reprinted in the original German, Archiv conveys the excitement and intellectual ferment of the times as only an original document can.

Under the editorship of eminent social and political philosophers, notably Max Weber, Archiv chronicles the academic institutionalization of the social sciences from 1888 to 1933. Claims to a universal science were abandoned and definitions of its specific tasks were made during this, perhaps the most significant span in the history of social science.

Archiv is a monumental work of the highest quality. As an invaluable documentary aid we heartily commend it to modern scholars and to their libraries.
